[439] were also exported to the United Kingdom. Live pigs were sold to Germany and to the Soviet Union.

235 Poultry raising developed remarkably in independent Estonia. The number of laying hens was almost four times bigger at the end of independence than it had been at the beginning; in 1922 there were 40,000 hens and in 1939 there were 1,486,000.

237 Fur animal (silver fox, mink, sable) farming became popular also during this time. Furs were produced mainly for home use, but some fur export was also carried on.

241 Farm Equipment and Techniques. Owing to the 476 large number of small farms in Estonia, the farmers used horses, for the most part, in the cultivation of land. In later years of independence
